IMPORTANT RISK INFORMATION

There are risks involved with investing in ETFs, including possible loss of money. Shares are not actively managed and are subject to risks similar to those of stocks, including those regarding short selling and margin maintenance requirements. Ordinary brokerage commissions apply. The Fund's return may not match the return of the Underlying Index.

The fund invests in preferred securities which may be subject to many of the risks associated with debt securities, including interest rate risk. The fund invests in equity securities which may be subject to volatile price fluctuations. Because the fund is non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of its assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund, changes in the market value of a single investment could cause greater fluctuations in share price. This fund is new and has a limited operating history.

S&P U.S. Preferred Stock Index represents the US preferred stock market.

S&P and Moody's study the financial condition of an entity to ascertain its creditworthiness. The credit ratings reflect the rating agency's opinion of the holdings financial condition and histories. For information on the rating agencies methodology, visit <http://www.standardandpoors.com> or <https://www.moodys.com>.

Volatility is the annualized standard deviation of the index returns. Return / Risk is the relationship between the amount of return gained on an investment and the amount of risk undertaken in that investment. Dividend yield is the rate is calculated by annualizing the most recent distribution and dividing by the fund NAV from the as of date. SEC 30 day yield is a standard yield calculation developed by the Securities and Exchange Commission that allows for a common ground comparison of yield performance. It is based on the most recent 30-day period. It is calculated by dividing the net investment income (less expenses) per share over a 30-day period by the current maximum offering price.

Shares of ETFs are bought and sold at market price (not NAV) and are not individually redeemed from the Fund. Market returns are based upon the midpoint of the bid/ask spread at 4:00pm eastern time (when NAV is normally determined for most ETFs), and do not represent the returns you would receive if you traded shares at other times.

Shares are not individually redeemable and owners of the shares may acquire those shares from the Fund and tender those shares for redemption to the Fund in Creation Units only, typically consisting of 50,000 Shares.

An investor should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of the Fund carefully before investing. To obtain a prospectus containing this and other information, please call 630.384.8700. Read the prospectus carefully before you invest.
